Federal Firearms Licensee Information

Department of the Treasury
Bureau of Alcohol,
Tobacco and Firearms

ATF P 5300.15 (1/89)

T 70.2:

READEX FICHE best copy available

The following information relates to dealing in firearms and ammunition. There is also a section relating to the collection of curio and relic firearms. The appropriate references are Title 27, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 178.

These are general guidelines intended for quick reference and do not cover all situations that you, as a licensee, may encounter. Consult the law and regulations or contact ATF for more detailed information.

You must also comply with all State or local laws that apply to your business operations.

Your License

1. It is in effect until the expiration date shown on the license (178.49).
2. It covers operations only at the location shown on the license or at a bona fide gun show within your State where licensed.
3. You should examine your license carefully to make sure the information shown is correct.
4. If you find an error, send the license back to your regional director (compliance) for correction (178.48).
5. You must keep your license (ATF Form 8) posted and ready for inspection by ATF officers (178.91).
6. Use copies of the license to make purchases. Each copy must have your original signature (178.94, 178.95).
7. No license is required to deal in ammunition only. Licenses are required to manufacture or import ammunition.

Renewal of Your License

1. ATF will send a renewal application to you about 60 days before the expiration date shown on your license.
2. If you have not received your renewal application 30 days before the license expiration date, and you want to stay in business, please notify the ATF regional office serving your State.
3. If you want to renew your license, you must complete and send the application, with the fee attached, to the address specified on the form before the license expiration date. If you file before the license expiration date, you may operate until you receive your new license.

Records You Must Keep

Firearms

1. Keep a separate permanent "bound book" record of all firearms received and disposed of. This includes firearms received in pawn, curios and relics, and firearms received for overnight (or longer) repair. A bound book should either be permanently bound or an orderly arrangement of loose-leaf pages. It must be maintained on the business premises.
   a. Firearms are to be logged in when received and logged out as they are disposed of (178.125(c)). This publication contains sample bound book entries showing some types of firearms transactions, including both acquisitions and dispositions.
   b. Keep these records permanently if you are a manufacturer or importer: for 20 years after the date of disposition for all other licensees.
2. Prepare ATF Form 4473, Firearms Transaction Record, covering the transfer of each firearm to a nonlicensed person. Because Form 4473 is the most important record that you will keep, you should read the instructions carefully and complete each form fully.
   a. These completed Forms 4473 must also be kept just as the permanent record described in item 1.
   b. Forms 4473 may be kept alphabetically (by name of purchaser), chronologically (by date of disposition), or numerically (by transaction serial number) (178.124).
   c. Use yellow Form 4473 (Part I) for over-the-counter sales; use green Form 4473 (Part II) for non-over-the-counter sales (178.124).

Ammunition

3. No records are required for ammunition. (Effective November 15, 1986).
4. Licensees may dispose of all ammunition records after November 15, 1988.
5. Records are required to record the disposition of armor piercing ammunition by those specially licensed manufacturers and importers authorized to deal in this special ammunition. (See 178.125(c)).
6. Since the law provides that the license of a dealer may be revoked for dealing in armor piercing ammunition, special provisions are provided to allow dealers who may have acquired an inventory prior to the effective date of P.L. 99-408 (August 28, 1986) to dispose of their inventory to governmental entities. (see 178.99(e)).
7. Ammunition may be sold and shipped interstate to licensees and nonlicensees.

Transfers Between Licensees

1. Generally, licensees may freely buy and sell firearms among themselves.
   a. Licensees do not have to prepare Forms 4473 on transfers to other licensees.
   b. Transactions between licensees must be recorded in the bound book record.
   c. The licensee to receive the firearms shall furnish a copy of his license to the licensee selling or otherwise disposing of the firearms prior to making the transaction (178.94, 178.95).
   d. Licensees may ship interstate to other licensees.
   e. As a firearms dealer, you may take orders for firearms at any location, but THE ORDER MUST BE FILLED ONLY AT YOUR LICENSED PREMISES.
   f. Licensees may make sales at gun shows held in the State where the licensed premises are located. (178.100)
2. Your particular license may limit your activity. (See heading for LICENSED COLLECTORS in this publication.)

Know Your Customer

1. Identify the buyer before delivering any firearm or ammunition (178.124, 178.125).
2. A social security card, alien registration card or military identification alone do not contain sufficient information to identify a firearms purchaser. However, a firearms purchaser may be identified by any combination of documents which together establish all of the required information: name, residence address, date of birth or age, and signature.
3. In the case of ammunition sales, only the purchaser's age needs to be verified.

Age Requirements

Under Federal law, the minimum age for purchasers of firearms and ammunition may be either 18 or 21 years, depending on the item being purchased.

1. You may not sell a handgun or handgun ammunition to persons under 21 years of age.
2. You may not sell shotguns or rifles, or shotgun and rifle ammunition to persons under 18 years of age.
3. You may sell ammunition that is interchangeable between rifles and handguns to a purchaser who is at least 18 years of age if you are satisfied that he or she will use the ammunition in a rifle (178.99). Regardless of less restrictive State and local age requirements for firearms and ammunition purchasers, licensees must adhere to the above Federal minimum age provisions.

Residency Requirements for Nonlicensee Sales

1. If you sell or deliver a handgun to a nonlicensed person, that person must be a resident of, and located in, the State in which your licensed premises is located (178.99).
2. If you sell or deliver a rifle or shotgun to a nonlicensed person, that person may be a resident of any State provided the sale is an over-the-counter transaction at the licensee's premises and the sale complies with the laws at the place of sale and with the laws where the purchaser resides. (178.96(c))

Prohibited Sales

1. In addition to the requirements shown above, you may not lawfully sell or dispose of any firearm or ammunition to certain types of persons; e.g., convicted felons. See ATF F 4473, questions 8a through 8h.
2. If any of your customers would violate any State law or local ordinance that applies at the place where you sell or deliver, by purchasing or possessing any firearm or ammunition, then, under Federal law, you may not lawfully sell or deliver any firearms or ammunition to that customer (Federal law, 922(b)(2)).

Lost or Stolen Firearms

If firearms are lost or stolen, you should immediately contact your local law enforcement authorities.

Report Multiple Handgun Sales

1. The delivery of more than one handgun to the same individual (nonlicensee) within 5 consecutive business days must be reported to ATF on ATF F 3310.4, Report of Multiple Sale or Other Disposition of Pistols and Revolvers (178.126a).
2. The original of Form 3310.4 must be mailed to the ATF Law Enforcement office for your area at the end of the business day that the sale occurs.
3. Form 3310.4 will not be used when handguns are returned to the person from whom they were received.

Licensed Collectors

1. You may buy curios and relics from any source (178.50).
2. You may dispose of curios and relics to another licensee anywhere (178.50).
3. You may dispose of handgun curios and relics to nonlicensed residents of your State in your State (178.50).
4. You must maintain acquisition and disposition records. (178.125(e)).
5. Your collector's license entitles you to conduct transactions in curios and relics only. A licensed collector has the same status as a nonlicensee in any transactions involving firearms other than curios and relics.
6. Form 4473 is not required for C&R transactions.
7. See residency requirements in this publication for sales of rifle and shotgun C&R.

Change of Address

You must notify your regional director (compliance) at least 10 days before moving your firearms or ammunition business to a new address (178.52). Your license must be submitted for changes to reflect the new address.

Sale of Business or Going Out of Business

1. Within 30 days after you sell or discontinue your firearms or ammunition business, you must give written notice of this change in status to your regional director (compliance) (178.57).
2. If you sell or discontinue your firearms or ammunition business and are succeeded by a new licensee, your firearms dealer records should be marked to show this fact and shall be delivered to the successor (178.127).
3. You must deliver all of your firearms records to your ATF regional director (compliance) within 30 days of going completely out of the firearms or ammunition business (178.127).

Questions

If you should have any questions regarding Federal laws or regulations and are unable to locate the answers, please contact your nearest ATF field office or your ATF regional office.

Sales of Firearms to Law Enforcement Officers

Section 925(a)(1) of the Gun Control Act exempts law enforcement agencies from the transportation, shipment, receipt, or importation controls of the Act when firearms are to be used for the official business of the agency.

If a law enforcement officer is issued a certification letter on the agency's letterhead signed by a person in authority within his agency stating that the officer will use the firearms in performance of his official duties, then that officer specified in the certification may purchase a firearm from you regardless of the State in which he resides or in which the agency is located. The seller is not required to prepare a Form 4473 covering such a sale; however, the transaction must be entered in the permanent record. The certification letter from the officer must be kept in your files.

The Bureau considers the following as persons having authority to make certifications that the law enforcement officer purchasing the firearms will use the firearms in performance of his official duties.

1. In a city or county police department, the director of public safety or the chief or commissioner of police.
2. In a sheriff's office, the sheriff.
3. In a State police or highway patrol department, the superintendent or the supervisor in charge of the office to which the State officer or employee is assigned.
4. In Federal law enforcement offices, the supervisor in charge of the office to which the Federal officer or employee is assigned.

The Bureau would also recognize someone signing on behalf of a person of authority provided there is a proper delegation of authority and overall responsibility has not changed in any way.

Explanation of Acquisitions

Line

1 Shows purchase of a firearm from a licensed dealer—you have the option of showing either the name and address or the name and license number of the licensee from whom the firearm was received. In order for the store owner, Brian Smith, to obtain this firearm, he had to submit a current copy of his FFL to John's Fine Guns (178.94). When Brian received the firearm, he entered it into this book immediately. (For variation, see 178.125(f).)

4 Purchase of firearm from an unlicensed person.

5 Gun is brought in for repair. If firearm can be fixed and returned to owner on same business day, no entry need be made. However, if firearm cannot be returned that day, it must be entered as an acquisition even though it is not a purchase. Gunsmithing transactions such as that may be recorded in a separate bound book.

7 John Doe has brought in a gun for sale on consignment. Make entry on date of receipt.

8 Michaels originally purchased the gun on 11/2/87 (line 3). He does not like it and returns it on 11/24/87. The firearm must be reentered showing date of receipt and from whom received. (It was received from Michaels on 11/24/87.) The original entry on line 3 remains unchanged.

9 Brian Smith, owner of the licensed business, has a personal firearm he wants to sell. Enter firearm in book and show acquisition date as the date it was put up for sale.

10 Firearm sent to Fix It or Melt It, Inc. for repair on 6/20/87 is returned to Smith's shop and reentered on 12/2/87.

Hand-ruled paper with the same column arrangement, same column headings, and the same language notations as the illustration above may be used.

Line numbers are given for illustration purposes only.

Explanation of Dispositions

Line

1 Sale to an unlicensed person. The buyer's name is inserted directly across from the firearm purchased. Brian's Sport Shop files Forms 4473 numerically (see 178.124(b) for options) and lists the form number in place of the address. Number "2" is the serial number of the Form 4473 that Mr. House filled out.

2 This firearm has not been traded, sold, loaned, stolen or transferred out. It should be on hand and available for inspection.

3 Sale made at gun show held in dealer's State.

4 Bounce borrows a gun. It is not a sale but it is a disposition. Form 4473 must be filled out. (See 178.97 for loans and rentals by clubs.) When Bounce returns the gun, it must be shown as an acquisition.

5 Brian is unable to fix the firearm brought in by Mr. Problem and sends it to a gunsmith for repair. Gunsmiths must be licensed and Brian's Sport Shop must obtain from Fix It or Melt It, Inc. a current certified copy of their license prior to delivery of the firearm.

6 Brian Smith, owner of the store, takes a firearm from inventory for his own personal firearm. Since this is a disposition to the licensee, a Form 4473 is not necessary. When this happens, it must be either removed from the business premises, or, if kept on the business premises, must be identified as not being part of his business inventory (such as by a tag reading "NOT FOR SALE").

7 Gun brought in by John Doe for sale on consignment was not sold. Form 4473 must be filled out by John Doe when the gun is returned to him.

8 The firearm is stolen—show disposition of firearm as "stolen" and show date the theft was reported to the local authorities. If the police case number is available, please report it here.

9 Firearm was sold to out-of-State policeman for official use, as evidenced by certification letter. See instructions on sale to law enforcement officers.

10 Mr. Problem gets his repaired gun back. He does not need to fill out Form 4473. The gun was returned to the same person who brought the gun in for repair. If someone picked the gun up for Mr. Problem, a Form 4473 would then have to be filled out by that person (178.124(a)).

REPORT OF MULTIPLE SALE OR OTHER DISPOSITION OF PISTOLS AND REVOLVERS

INSTRUCTIONS

1. This form is to be used by licensees to report all transactions in which an unlicensed person has acquired two or more pistols and/or revolvers at one time or during five consecutive business days.
2. A separate form is to be submitted for each such person.
3. The report is to be submitted to the ATF Law Enforcement Office for your area not later than the close of business on the day that the multiple sale or other disposition occurs. See State Laws and Published Ordinances-Firearms, for the office nearest your business premises. *
4. Complete Items 1 through 7, fold, seal with tape, affix postage and mail.

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT NOTICE

This request is in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980. The information requested on this form documents certain sales or other dispositions of handguns for law enforcement purposes. The information is used to determine if the buyer (transferee) is involved in an unlawful activity, or is a person prohibited by law from obtaining firearms. The information requested is mandatory and required by statute (18 U.S.C. 923(g)).

(Fold on this line)

Disposition of a Personally Owned Firearm

1. Every firearm acquired and disposed of by a licensee, with the exception of firearms personally owned before obtaining a license, must be entered in the acquisition and disposition record required by 178.125.
2. Any firearm acquired after obtaining a license may be for your personal collection. You will enter the firearm into the A & D record and show disposition to yourself. A Form 4473 is not required. You may dispose of these firearms to a nonlicensee without obtaining a Form 4473 if the firearm was logged out of the A & D record to yourself at least 1 year prior to the date of disposition to the nonlicensee.
3. Any firearm owned prior to obtaining a license may be sold to a nonlicensee without a Form 4473 and without entry into the A & D record if you have owned the firearm at least 1 year before disposition. Ownership of the firearm for at least 1 year must be documented in these cases.
4. A separate record (required under 178.125a) will be kept of the disposition of all personally owned firearms.
